3 Complete the text with the correct form of some of the words from the previous task.

Thanksgiving, an American and Canadian holiday, is celebrated A. annually on the fourth Thursday in November. Traditionally, people on this day eat turkey, sweet B. cranberries, bread stuffing, and pumpkin pie, with C. venison not being on the menu. While the celebration is supposed to be a family meeting, there are people who may feel that it is D. deteriorating recently, with family members being E. tempted to discuss controversial political issues with their relatives. Due to that fact, even though it was supposed to be a F. reprieve from the everyday burdens of life, it may become a tradition dreaded by a lot of people.
